

Contents

Foreword	vii
Preface	ix
Authors and Reviewers	xi
Section One: The Specialty Practice of Rehabilitation Nursing	1
Chapter 1: Rehabilitation Nursing: Historical Perspectives, Current Practice, and the Future	3
Chapter 2: The Competency Model for Professional Rehabilitation Nursing: Application to Practice	13
Chapter 3: Interprofessional Teamwork and Collaboration	29
Chapter 4: Theories and Frameworks Contributing to Best Practice Models in Rehabilitation Nursing	41
Chapter 5: Building Rehabilitation Nursing Knowledge and Evidence for Practice Through Research	73
Chapter 6: Quality and Safety: Performance Measurement and Accountability	93
Chapter 7: Healthcare Financing and Health Policy in Rehabilitation	105
Section Two: Environment of Care	119
Chapter 8: Rehabilitation Nursing Across the Continuum	121
Chapter 9: Health Promotion and Maintenance	141
Chapter 10: Physical Healthcare Patterns and Nursing Interventions	157
Chapter 11: Bowel and Bladder Care	191
Chapter 12: Psychosocial Health	223
Chapter 13: Disaster and Mass Casualty Preparedness, Response, and Recovery	245
Section Three: Caring for Persons with Disability and Chronic Health Conditions	261
Chapter 14: Pediatric Rehabilitation	263
Chapter 15: Gerontological Rehabilitation Nursing	283
Chapter 16: Individuals with Acute and Chronic Neurological Diseases	313
Chapter 17: Rehabilitation Nursing Care for Survivors of Stroke	339
Chapter 18: Traumatic Injuries: Traumatic Brain Injury and Spinal Cord Injury	375
Chapter 19: Rehabilitation for Clients with Musculoskeletal Conditions	431
Chapter 20: Cardiac and Pulmonary Rehabilitation	451
Chapter 21: Rehabilitation in Cancer Care	467
Chapter 22: Other Disease Processes Requiring Rehabilitation Interventions	495
Chapter 23: Acute and Chronic Pain Management	527
Chapter 24: Acute and Chronic Complications in the Rehabilitation Client Population	545
Chapter 25: U.S. Military Veteran Considerations in Rehabilitation Nursing	587